> AUCTIONED FIRST 100 RED CROSS SEALS

$5 Was the Bid Made by W. B. Wilcox at the Auditorium.

Five dollars was the generous sized bid made by W. B. Wilcox at the Auditorium theatre on Thanksgiving night for 100 Red Cross stamps, the first sold in this city this year, which were auctioned off by F. J. Leavens of the local branch of the Red Cross. Mr. Leavens appeared on the Auditorium stame through the courtesy of the ium stage through the courtesy of the theatre management at 8 o'clock and in a few remarks gave a brief history of the Red Cross stamp movement which has grown wonderfully in the past five years.

To accomedate the holiday theaire goers there were four shows two in the afternoon and two in the evening and at all four performances there were large sized houses. Heading the bill were Brazil and Brazil, equilibrists, who performed account the control of the who performed several very daring acts that were loudly applauded. Another feature were the Black Bros, who made a hit in a musical novelty act and the third act billed on the programme was that of Edith Gardner, cornelispase.

The feature movie film was Mysterious Mystery in two reels with Florence Lawrence and Matt Moore. Mary Pickford the clever little movie actress was seen in The Dark Horse and a comedy reel completed the bill.

Home for the Holiday. Nelson Lee Mabrey, a student at the Wentworth School, Boston, arrived Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving and the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mabrey, of Broadway. The institution which he is attending is one of the most liberally endowed technical exherical erally endowed technical schools New England and all its graduates take a high stand.
